Claim number : 64460.

Docket number : 19120.

Dear Mrs the Current Deputy,

In my letter of April 5th, 2011, I informed you that the original Proof of Claim was sent on time via the Belgian Post to the right address, as it can be seen on the "Proof of Sending" of the Belgian Post. (See annex 3).

I have just received a letter of the Belgian Post admitting a mistake in the delivery of my International Registered Sending. (Annex 1)

For your convenience, I have taken the initiative to translate this letter in annex 2.

I hope therefore you understand I have no responsibility in the delay with respect to the Bar Date Order established November 2d, 2009 as the deadline to file proofs of claim arising from securities on the Lehman Programs Securities list.

Can you tell me if I have to sent this letter of the Belgian Post admitting mistake in the delivery, to others addresses and which ones to make it a valid argument supporting my position?

If allowed, can you please add this letter to my file containing the other documents related to the case?

I thank you very much in advance for answering me rapidly as the next hearing is planned on December 21st, 2011.

Best regards.

Danielle Tinant
